Foreword

The 1971 Lion is a student's view of a year that has become only a memory.

The year 1970-71 will rapidly become almost indistinguishable from all that have gone before and will follow; but what time erases, this book will preserve, the year as the student saw it as Scotts Hill.

In the classroom as well as on the court, students met victory and defeat. As a group, we huddled together to face the new opportunities of tomorrow. As individuals we kept our goals set high and plodded on to the future.

1970-71 was a game ... teacher ... friends ... the past ... hope ... fear ... a memory pointing on toward the future.

Dedication

When we, as students of Scotts Hill School, began our last four years of work at school, little did we realize how greatly our lives had been and would be affected by the faculty. Our lives and opinions have been tremendously influenced by our teachers. Our problems have been their problems; our hopes and ambitions theirs. They have been our friends. They were always ready to advise and encourage in warm understanding whenever we needed them. They have lighted the lamp of learning in a most delightful and inspiring way.

We would like to give special recognition to our principal, Mr. Charles Woody, who has so capably led us this year. He has not only been our principal, but he has been our friend. He was never too busy to discuss a problem with us or answer our questions. Mr. Woody has endeavored in every possible way to achieve the best for our school. He has instilled in us a love of truth, honor, and respect for our fellow-man.

In no way could we say "thank you" to this group of devoted teachers, but to show our gratitude for the many times they have helped us, inspired us, and led us, we, the Senior Class of '71, most respectfully dedicate this edition of the 1971 Lion to this group of teachers and our principal.

Our Principal

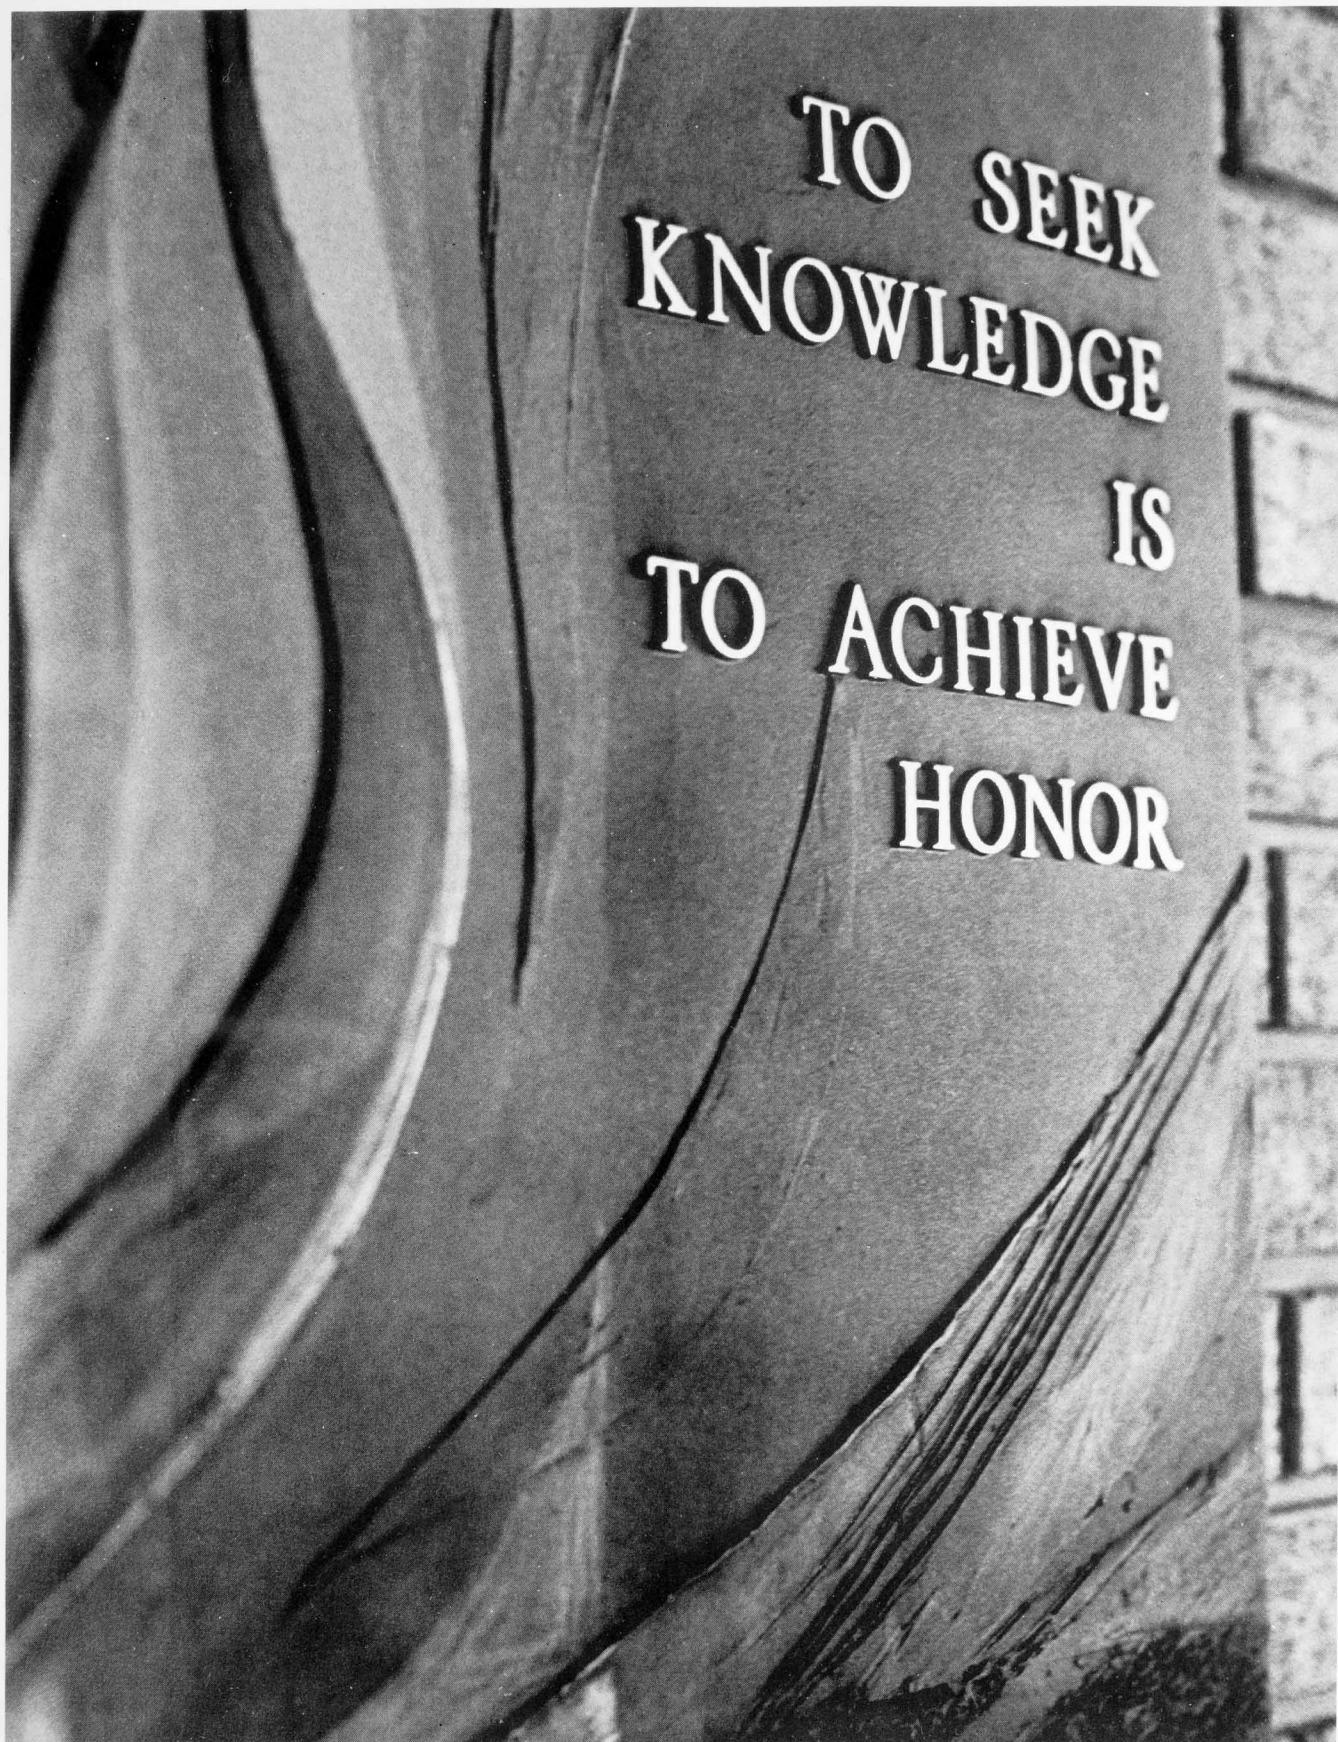

Graduates of 1971:

Our association has been most pleasant. May I extend my congratulations to each of you.

My thanks to all who have helped so faithfully in making another good year possible.

Sincerely,

Don Woody

MELINDA SCOTT - VALEDICTORIAN

Our yearbook is now completed and we, the annual staff, are proud of our efforts. It has not been an easy task, but we have enjoyed the completion of another treasure chest of pleasant memories of the days at Scotts Hill School.

The many hands which have made our yearbook possible cannot be overlooked. We would like to express our sincere thanks to all who helped make the production of this book possible.
